Book Description

Police officer Seth Colter is gut-shot upon seeing the delicate, shabbily dressed beauty in the soup kitchen line. More baffling is the possessive instinct telling him she belongs to him.

Lily Weston's home is a secluded back alley nook, until Seth offers her a haven. Wary of his offer, yet reluctant to spend another night in the cold, she gives in.

Seth has a problem when his brothers lay eyes on her and claim her for themselves. Their mutual need to protect and love Lilly can't be ignored, yet forging a future is impossible until they heal her deep wounds.
