From the Book: Common Fish

Rainbow Trout

The beautifully marked rainbow trout, one of the world's most popular gamefish, prefers water cooler than 70 degrees.

Channel Cat

The channel cat is a hard-fighting gamefish widely stocked in ponds, reservoirs, and lakes everywhere. Its barbels (whiskers) help it locate food even in clouded water.

Largemouth Bass

The largemouth bass ranks as one of the most recognized and prized game fish the world over. A largemouth will take live bait, but it's usually caught on a wide range of lures, including the soft plastic Yum Big Show Craw.
