Description:

Concise new title by the top author in legal research. Focuses on pre-and post-search analysis for effectively filtering vast amounts of material. Teaches students how to identify the most pertinent and authoritative information to solve a legal problem.

Features:

- Concise, reasonably priced new title from the top legal research author.
 - Approaches legal research as a filtering process to identify the most pertinent and authoritative information from vast search results.
 - Part I: Explains how to define a research question; pre-filter content before beginning a search; conduct research; and establish post-search criteria for filtering results.
 - Part II: Describes essential features of individual sources of authority and search strategies unique to each source.
 - Part III: Contains research flowcharts to help students plan research strategy for different types of research projects.
 - Contains all information students need to learn fundamental principles of legal research.
 - Can also be used to complement other texts and classroom materials.
 - Not simply a shorter version of Basic Legal Research. Looks at research as a process of filtering the available information, rather than as a process that requires first choosing the right source of authority to solve a legal problem.
