Description:

Review "Tammy Falkner is a master story-teller who really knows how to pull on the heartstrings." -- Romance Junkies

"Tammy Falkner (also part of the writing team behind Lydia Dare) has come into the New Adult Genre with a bang in Tall, Tatted and Tempting." -- The Brunette Librarian

From the Author Dear Readers,

I found myself in a little bit of a quandary as I wrote this book. If you've read any of my books before, you know that my writing tends to run toward the hot end of thermometer. I write heat because it's also what I like to read. However, when I was writing this book, my eighteen-year-old son was intrigued by the premise, and he asked if he could read some pages early on. As I wrote more and more, he asked for more pages, and finally I got to the point where he could no longer feel comfortable reading it. He asked me for a version "just for him." He's not a prude by any means, but he was more comfortable with a "sexy-lite" version of the book. My mother is also someone who skips the sex scenes, and she was intrigued when I told her about this special version.

Since it was already written, I have included both versions in this compilation. The first version is a hot read, not meant for anyone under the age of eighteen and not meant for those who don't enjoy explicit sex scenes.

The second version is my son's version. By no means is it meant for anyone under the age of eighteen, since it has adult content, adult language, and adult situations. But it's sexy-lite.

I hope you like your choice of story and appreciate that the choice of which one to read is yours!

Best regards,
Tammy
